HONORS CONVOCAATION

April 12, 2006

Westbrook Auditorium–Presser Hall
11:00 a.m.

Mary Ann Bushman
Associate Professor of English

Recipient of The Pantagraph Award for Teaching Excellence – 2006

Mary Ann Bushman grew up in Milledgeville, a small town in northwest Illinois. She was the first in her family to go to college and she chose the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where she graduated with a B.A. in English cum laude in 1971.

She decided to go to graduate school not necessarily to pursue an academic career, but because she simply wanted to learn more about literature. The University of California at Berkeley was attractive because it had one of the top three graduate programs in English, and it was far away and totally different from Illinois. In 1973 she received the M.A. and her Ph.D. in 1983. She returned to Illinois in 1980 as an instructor of English at Illinois Wesleyan, was promoted to assistant professor in 1983, then associate professor in 1988. She served as chair of the English Department from 1989 to 1993.

Bushman's primary scholarship and teaching interests include Shakespeare, Renaissance drama, interdisciplinary western humanities, writing, and poetry. Her service to the University has included many committees, involvement with a variety of programs, and administrative responsibilities. She was one of the early developers of the Writing Center and her passion for the teaching of writing is well known among her colleagues and students.

As a teacher, one of her favorite moments is when a student makes a real connection with a piece of literature, its meaning within the context of its time and the relevance it holds for the student's life. Another occurs when a student needs to know something – now.

Excellent teaching is a hallmark of Illinois Wesleyan and The Pantagraph Award was established to recognize this strength and to honor one faculty member at this occasion who brings spirit, passion and scholarship to the art of teaching. For her dedication to the ideals and philosophy of higher education and the liberal arts, Professor Mary Ann Bushman is recognized with the University's highest teaching honor.

This program is dedicated to the Class of 2006
and
to students who have earned scholastic and activity honors.

Presiding—Jessica Dixon '06, Class President
