ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1989

Dr. Pamela Buchanan Muirhead

Dr. Pamela Buchanan Muirhead, a 1968 alumna of Illinois Wesleyan, is the 30th recipient of the annual Century Club Award for teaching excellence and the sixth member of the English department to be named honoree since the award was established in 1960.

The Century Club is an organization of persons who support the University with annual gifts of $139 or more.

Today's event marks the beginning of a new Century Club tradition as Dr. Muirhead becomes the first honoree to address the annual Honors Convocation.

Currently an assistant professor, she joined the faculty of her Alma Mater in 1972 after teaching one year at Zion-Benton High School. During one summer she worked in the Upward Bound program at Barat College. She also served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Sri Lanka.

She earned a master's degree from Northwestern University in 1972 and a Ph.D. in English from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1981. Her doctoral dissertation was a study of the picaresque in six Afro-American novels.

Her interests in 20th century Afro-American novels, Afro-American family history, black folktales and the literature of Africa and South Asia are reflected in her professional and scholarly work.

In January 1987 she was invited to lecture at Jawaharlal Nehru University in New Delhi, India, on James Baldwin and the Afro-American experience. A year earlier she presented a paper on the problems of self-definition in the novels of black women writers for the National Women's Studies Association, and last month she participated in a panel on "Blacks in Illinois: The Bloomington-Normal Experience." Her paper, "Telling Our Stories: Langston Hughes and the Home Folks," will be published with other session papers.

An active member of the University community, Dr. Muirhead has served on the Admission and Minority Advisory Committees, was a member of the Presidential Search Committee, is an adviser to International House, is President of the Wesleyan chapter of The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, holds a two-year term as a Faculty Visitor to the Board of Trustees and also serves on the East Asia Area Studies Committee.

A world traveler, Dr. Muirhead has visited or studied in Canada, Mexico, Asia, including India, Nepal and Sri Lanka, and Africa, including Kenya, Uganda, Ghana and Nigeria.

She is a native of Chicago and is married to Illinois Wesleyan alumnus John W. Muirhead of the Class of 1962. They are parents of Lakshmi, age 14, and John Buchanan, age 11.

This program is dedicated to the Seniors and to the students who have earned scholastic and activity recognition.
