ABOUT THE AUTHORS . . .

Steve Bencoter is a senior History major and Political Science minor. A member of Phi Kappa Phi, he has been active on campus in Ambassador Club, and he served as President of both Gulick Hall Council and Blue Key. Steve is currently planning on working before continuing on to graduate school in a few years. He was also a member of the Undergraduate Review editorial board, 1988-89.

Mary Sarah Boulanger is a 1988 graduate of Wesleyan with a degree in English and a minor in American Studies. While on campus Sarah served as a staff writer for the Argus, a member of the Undergraduate Review editorial board, and was a student representative on Curriculum Council, as well as being an Academic Skills Center tutor. A member of Phi Kappa Phi, Sarah was also voted an Outstanding Senior of 1988. She is currently living in Oak Park and doing free lance technical writing while preparing to attend graduate school in the fall in American Studies.

Pamela Lannom is a 1988 graduate of Wesleyan with a degree in English and a minor in History. While on campus Pam served as the Recruiting Secretary for Sigma Kappa, the Little Sister Chairperson, and as a Greek peer counselor, as well as being a member of Phi Kappa Phi. Pam worked as an Academic Skills Center tutor and was last year's Managing Editor of Undergraduate Review. She is currently living in Willowbrook and working for The Doings, a local paper in Hinsdale.

Shena Salzmann is a senior English major with a minor in Art History. A member of Phi Kappa Phi, she is an editor for both still and Undergraduate Review. Shena has also served as an Academic Skills Center tutor for the past two years. She is currently planning on working for a few years in the communications field before attending graduate school.

Krista Stearns is a senior with a contract major in the History and Ethics of Public Policy and a French minor. She is active in Student Senate, serving in such positions as Student Union Commissioner and a member of Curriculum Council over the past three years, in addition to playing volleyball for Wesleyan. She is currently President of Pi Sigma Alpha and has been an Academic Skills Center tutor for two years. Krista is in the process of applying to law schools and is also interested in the Peace Corps.
