ABOUT THE AUTHORS . . .

Claudia Svoboda graduated from Wesleyan in 1989 with a double major in German and Biology. A member of Alpha Mu Gamma, she was active in the campus chamber strings ensemble and worked for the campus newspaper, The Argus. Last year she studied post-World War II literature in Germany on a Fullbright scholarship.

Eric Gardner graduated from Illinois Wesleyan in 1989 and is currently pursuing his Master's Degree in American Literature at the University of Illinois. When Eric is not spending his time teaching Freshman English or enjoying his newlywed status, he continues to write poetry. Recently published in Bluff City Review, Coal City Review, and Touchstone, Eric hopes to have his first chapbook published in the near future.

Lisa Krahn graduated from Wesleyan in 1990 with a degree in art and a minor in philosophy. She earned membership in several campus honoraries including Alpha Lambda Delta, Green Medalion, and EGAS. She is currently doing graduate work in art history.

Becca Ewert will graduate in 1991 with a double major in English and Music. This year, she has done a Research Honors Project examining the interrelations and correlations in both fields, and has a particular interest in women's roles in these areas. Since music has always been an important part of her life, Becca plans to continue performing in the future, while working on her Master's Degree and eventually her Ph.D. in English.

R. Jonathan Moore is currently a junior at Illinois Wesleyan. He plans to study in Chicago the first semester of his senior year, continuing his research in the Fundamentalist movement. A double major in English and History, Jonathan is contemplating either graduate or law school after he leaves Wesleyan.

Dianne Rudy will graduate in May, 1991. A biology major, she spent last summer doing research at Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute in Massachusetts. After spending three months with millions of snails, Dianne has decided to switch gears and pursue her R.N. and Master's Degree at Vanderbilt University next fall.
