ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, 1988

Dr. Jerry M. Israel

New York-born Jerry Israel came to Illinois Wesleyan as chairman of the history department in 1974 after four years at Northern Illinois University, where he was graduate advisor. Prior to that appointment, he taught at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Texas, El Paso.

He graduated with honors and a Phi Beta Kappa key in 1972 from New York University. He earned a master's degree at the University of Michigan and a doctorate of philosophy degree from Rutgers.

Dr. Israel was awarded a full professorship in 1977, the same year that he was named Director of Social Science Programs. In 1981 Israel was promoted to Associate Dean of the University and was named Century Club Honoree. In 1987, he was promoted to acting Academic Dean. This spring he accepted the position of Vice President of the College and Academic Dean at Simpson College in Indianola, IA. Simpson College is a United Methodist-affiliated institution with an enrollment slightly over 900 and an additional 600 adults involved in the continuing education program.

Dr. Israel's publications include, "Progressivism and the Open Door: America and China, 1905-1921," as well as numerous articles and reviews for various periodicals and journals.

This program is dedicated to the Seniors and
to the students who have earned scholastic and activity recognition.
