

Res Publica - Journal of Undergraduate Research

Volume 14, Issue 1

2009

Article 5

Author Biographies

This paper is posted at Digital Commons@ IWU. <http://digitalcommons.iwu.edu/respublica/vol14/iss1/5>

© Copyright is owned by the author of this document.

Author Biographies

W. Scott Miller is a graduating senior with a History and Political Science double major. Currently, he is an active member of Sigma Pi Fraternity and Student Senate and is serving on their respective executive boards. Additionally, he is a Research Assistant to the Political Science Department, co-editor of Constructing the Past—IWU's publication of peer reviewed history papers—, and student coordinator for Titan Transport. Next year, he will continue studying history at Southern Illinois University Carbondale on a Master's research fellowship.

Robert Porter is a senior at Illinois Wesleyan University from Bloomington, Illinois. He will graduate in May of 2009 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and a minor in History. Bobby's primary areas of interest include election law and state and local government. He is a member of various groups on campus, including Pi Sigma Alpha and Phi Beta Kappa. After graduation, Bobby plans on attending law school at the University of Illinois.

Katie Heaney is a senior at Illinois Wesleyan University from Shoreview, Minnesota. She will graduate with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in May 2009 with a double major in Political Science and Hispanic Studies. Having served as the Feminist Majority Leadership Alliance's president for a year and a half, Katie's special interests include women's rights activism and progressive public policy. After graduation she hopes to work for a Minnesota congressperson or a feminist not-for-profit.

Rebecca Tong is a senior at Illinois Wesleyan University. She will graduate in May 2009 with a double major in Political Science and International Studies with a Development concentration. Rebecca has performed in the Student and Faculty Choreographed Dance Concert. Rebecca plans to continue study multiculturalism and aspires to be like Paul Farmer.

Christine Gibbs is a senior at Illinois Wesleyan University. She will graduate in May, 2009 with a double major in Political Science and International Studies. She interned in the Irish Parliament while studying abroad in Ireland, was Vice President Member Development of Alpha Gamma Delta, President of Pi Sigma Alpha, and has been part of the track and cross country teams. After she graduates she plans to pursue a job with the state or federal government and eventually go to graduate or law school.

Anna File is a senior double major in Political Science and International Studies with a Concentration in Asian Studies. She has spent time in China studying Chinese in Hangzhou, working as a journalist at a Shanghai expatriate magazine, and conducting research through the auspices of the Freeman Asia Grant. Upon graduation Anna will attend Cambridge University in pursuit of a Masters in East Asian Studies.