World Piece Series: Morocco

October 27, 2011

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. –The Illinois Wesleyan University International Office will host Morocco and the AUI/IWU Exchange as part of the on-going “World Piece” series of student-led discussions on current global issues. The event, free and open to the public, will be held from 12:05 – 1:10 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 1 in the Davidson Room of Memorial Center (104 University St., Bloomington).

The presenters will include Brahim Senhaji, a junior computer science major from Fes, Morocco, and Tianxiao Anthony Yang, a sophomore Mathematics and Economics double major from Wuhan, China. Senhaji is IWU’s first exchange student from Akhawayn University (AUI), and Yang is IWU’s first exchange student to AUI. Yang will host a pictorial tour of Morocco and Senhaji will answer questions about AUI and life in Morocco.

Attendees are invited to bring their lunch, and a traditional Moroccan drink and dessert will be served.
