Students to Celebrate 2011 Homecoming

September 20, 2011

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Illinois Wesleyan University students have created student-oriented activities to celebrate 2011 Homecoming: Lights, Camera, Action. This year, students will search for the school mascot, Tommy the Titan, vote for Homecoming court, and dress-up as celebrities – to show their IWU school spirit.

Many events will be ongoing, such as “Where on Campus is Tommy the Titan.” Throughout the duration of Homecoming week, students will search for clues on where to find Tommy and are encouraged to take photos of the mascot and post them to Facebook or Twitter. Featured events will also include the “Celebrity Jeopardy” and the 60th Annual Titan Games, during which students compete against each other in various relay races.

As in previous years, residence halls, student organizations, and fraternities and sororities have been divided into teams for the week. The goal of each team is to accumulate the highest number of points, and points will be awarded during each Homecoming event. The team with the highest number of points by the end of the week will receive a $200 prize.
