The Act of Rededication

(All standing, the Leader shall say, the People responding:)

LEADER: You have heard how God of old led our forefathers to lay the foundations of this institution through sacrifice and toil. You have heard the leaders of this day declare anew their faith in the cause of Christian higher education. It now becomes our privilege to uphold their hands and to renew our own consecration to the cause of Christ as represented here at this institution: To the glory of God the Father, who has called us by his grace; To the honor of his Son, who loved us and gave himself for us; To the praise of the Holy Spirit, who illumines and sanctifies us;

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

LEADER: To the beauties of thine infinite universe; To the contemplation of thy glorious design, both seen and unseen; To those poets, musicians and artists who celebrate the beautiful in earthly forms, and thus enrich our lives;

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

LEADER: To the secrets of the natural world unfolded around us; To the laboratories and instruments of science; To the men who use them in studying the mysteries of thy creation;

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

LEADER: To the wondrous society of thy children; To the patterns of life in which we live and move and have our being; To the men skilled in human relations, whose insights help to fulfill our brotherhood.

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

LEADER: To the labors of those who have loved and served this institution; To the sacrifice of those who have helped it to grow; To the courage of those who now guide its life;

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

LEADER: To its traditional ties with the Methodist Church, which seeks in its life to combine knowledge and vital piety; To that same Church whose prayers uphold this school; To the Church whose loving concern and continuing gifts sustain it;

PEOPLE: We rededicate this University.

(Then shall the Leader and all the People together pray:)

O God, by whose law the planets run their courses, by whose plan life has unfolded upon the earth, by whose inspiration scholars have searched for truth, prophets have spoken, and poets dreamed, here we offer unto thee ourselves, a living sacrifice. Grant that the things which are true, lovely, and of good report may here flourish and abound, so that this University may be held in honor under Thee. For unto Thee is all power and glory, now and forever. Amen.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

Bishop Donald H. Tippet
Doctor of Sacred Literature
Mr. Glen P. Brock
Doctor of Laws

HYMN: "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" Isaac Watts

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

Under the shelter of Thy throne,
Still may we dwell secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

A thousand ages in Thy sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come;
Be Thou our guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home!

BENEDICTION: The Reverend Raye Ragan, D.D.

RECESSIONAL: "March" from Aida Verdi
