Being a musician, I am a firm believer that artwork is the most effective vehicle of cultivating emotion. As Maya Angelou once said, "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." Mr. Boaz Vaadia's art has truly changed the way our campus feels, and for the better.

When I first saw Mr. Vaadia's work on our campus, I was amazed by the breadth of the art we had and if I'm honest, the Family With Dog was always my favorite.

On behalf of the IWU Student Body, I would like to thank Stevie Joslin for donating this beautiful sculpture to our school. As many of the speakers mentioned at the Welcome Address of Family Weekend, family is at the heart of our campus, and this sculpture is also at the heart of our campus. It's no coincidence. Family With Dog can now forever remind us of our close-knit campus family. Thank you again Stevie.
