IWU Council for Women – Scholarship Winners

Scholarship Overview:

The IWU Women's Council Scholarship is an award that does not consider financial information or GPA on its application. Rather, it looks at the civic activities, volunteer services, and leadership positions held by current Illinois Wesleyan women and the values that they have obtained from their experiences outside of the classroom. The Scholarship looks for those women who have contributed the most to their campus and community. Most importantly, the scholarship and application process focuses on the values, passion, and relationships that these women have obtained through their activities. It looks for those with personal and professional passion, communication skills, empowerment, leadership, and the influence and change that an individual brings upon others.
