Blue Moon Coffeehouse

- Event: Blue Moon Coffee House presents singer/songwriter Catie Curtis
- Date: Feb. 19 (Saturday)
- Time: Show starts at 8:00 p.m., doors open at 7:30 p.m.
- Location: Main Lounge, Memorial Center, 104 E. University St.
- Admission: Free and open to the public
IWU students, staff, and faculty may reserve seats before the performance by contacting bluemoon@titan.iwu.edu by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 17.
- Background: The New Yorker magazine calls Catie Curtis a “folk-rock goddess.” With shy charisma and hushed, literate balladry, she combines insightful lyrics and soulful energy into her music. Curtis writes about a wide range of issues including domestic violence, corporate greed, religion, homelessness, peace, and gay rights.
- Curtis has toured with Lilith Fair, and with artists such as Dar Williams and Mary Chapin Carpenter. Her songs have appeared on numerous television shows such as Dawson’s Creek, Felicity, Chicago Hope, and Alias and independent films such as 500 Miles to Graceland and A Slipping Down Life.
- Curtis continues to tour, headlining clubs, theaters and acoustic listening rooms, building a strong fan base around the United States and Europe. She is currently touring in support of her latest recording, Dreaming in Romance Languages on which she ties her intimate landscapes to broader themes of spirituality, community, and lasting love.
- Contact: For additional information, contact the Blue Moon Coffeehouse information line at (309) 556-3815 or visit Curtis’ Web site at <http://www.catiecurtis.com>.
