Council for IWU Women Summit 2019 Schedule of Events

Theme: Navigating Change

Thursday, February 7, 2019

7:30pm: Revisiting #MeToo: Empowering One Another

Davidson Room, Memorial Center. All are welcome.

Lead organizer: Abigail Kauerauf on behalf of F:EM

Hosted by F:EM: Abigail Kauerauf '19, Amanda Wesche '20, and Annika Fuller '21

Information: The 2018 Summit opened conversations of our personal experiences with workplace sexual harassment and how such experiences factor into the #MeToo movement. This year, we look outward instead of inward: How can we help those who identify as women around us? Together we'll discuss how best to equip the tools we've gained during the year of #MeToo to help not only ourselves but all women, acknowledging the many ways in which we respond to discrimination and the varying degrees of discrimination we face.

Pizza provided.

1:30-3:30 Summit Lounge

Davidson Room, Memorial Center

Lead: Marilynn Graves '79

Join CFW for an opportunity to share and hear stories about how we have navigated change in our lives. In spite of our many differences, we share many similar changes throughout our lives – new jobs, relocation to new communities, changes in family structure, and more. The Lounge is a time for each of us to share how we have best handled these changes and how we, as women, can support each other through these life events.

Registration table:

3:45 - 5pm Networking to Advance Your Career

Davidson Room, Memorial Center. All are welcome.

Lead organizer: Elly Jones

Speakers: Elly Jones, Molly Rollings

We hear all the time that networking is an invaluable asset in your day to day life, but how do you maximize the effectiveness of networking in your career? In this session, we will discuss the why, the how and the when of networking, specifically aimed at use in your professional life.

Registration table:

Photographer: Jason Reblando Alumni/student interaction.

Speakers: Justine Robinson '06

9:00 - 10:30am HERstory: Empowerment Through Sharing Our Experiences

Davidson Room, Memorial Center. All are welcome.

Lead organizer: Rosetta Clay and Debbie Burt-Frazier

Alumnae: Rachel Paturi '13, Jessica Freiburg '04

Students: Abby Kauerauf '19, Antoinette Jackson '20, Lizette Toto '21

Moderator: Rosetta Clay

Information: Women have the power to create and breathe life into the world. We must share our experiences to enlighten and strengthen one another not perpetuate the marginalization of others. Alumnae will reflect and current students will share their stories of their time at Illinois Wesleyan. Questions are designed to better understand the intersectionality of these women on the IWU campus. Gaining a greater understanding of the past and present of IWU women will enable attendees to gain empathy while creating a dialog to shape and improve the future.

10:45 - 11:45am Women in STEM: An Interactive Conversation

Davidson Room, Memorial Center. All are welcome.

Lead organizer: Jackie Bull

Moderator: Laura Ehrhart

Speakers: Julie Abraham '00, Kim Bankston '96, Jackie Bull '07, Laura Randolph '92, Laura Ehrhart '84

Information: As more and more women enter careers in STEM, this panel aims to answer students' questions about working in these ever-growing fields. Hear panelists' thoughts on networking to help with your career and personal life, negotiating for more than just your salary, working in a male-dominated field, and maintaining work-life balance in the era of Lean In.

Registration table assistants:
