          Session 1: Real World Problem Solving   State Farm Hall 201
          This session will provide students and alumnae the opportunity to learn from each other as they approach a real world problem and brainstorm ideas and solutions. Students and alumnae will also share effective tools for organizing and communicating those solutions. This session will cover different case studies relating to various fields of study - all are encouraged to attend! Linda Stone '85, Marilynn Graves '79, Kelly Fuller '06, Carole Liske '77

Session 2: Telling Our Story   State Farm Hall 202

This session will provide students and alumnae with the opportunity to record (audio and visual) the story of the Council for Women and our relationship with students and alumnae over the past 10 years. This session will be a creative way to learn more about the Council and its foundation in promoting and supporting students on campus. Come out to share how the Council has impacted you, how the Council can grow and why you are a part of the Summit this year. Claudia Brogan '77 and Jordan Prats '17
