At Illinois Wesleyan University, on September 21, 1964, at 8:00 in Memorial Gymnasium, the Presidents' Convocation was held. Mike Harvey, Convocations Commission Chairman, Dr. Lloyd M. Bertholf, President of Illinois Wesleyan University, and John Wiestart, President of the IWU Student Senate, were in attendance. Mr. Henry Charles served as the Songleader.

The program began with the song "Alma Wesleyan" sung by the audience, followed by "Wesleyan, dear Wesleyan" sung by Phi Mu Alpha Brass Ensemble. Mike Harvey welcomed everyone.

Dr. Lloyd M. Bertholf, President of Illinois Wesleyan University, delivered the address, followed by John Wiestart, President of the IWU Student Senate, who gave his address. Dr. Lloyd M. Bertholf then presented the Scholarship Awards. The ceremony concluded with "Wesleyan, dear Wesleyan" sung by the audience.

The text includes the lyrics for both songs, "From hearts a flame our love we pledge to thee, Where'er we wander over land and sea; Through time unending loyal we will be True to our Alma Mater, Wesleyan."

And "Wesleyan, dear Wesleyan
Mighty little Titan Band,
From afar we unite
In the praise of Green and White,
College days are come and gone,
Still the spirit lingers on,
And our hearts can never fail you
Dear old Wesleyan."
