ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1985

Dr. Robert W. Harrington

Professor Harrington joined the Wesleyan faculty in 1968 as director of business and economics. Previously he had been a member of the faculties of Indiana State University at Terre Haute and Wisconsin State University at Superior.

He has held numerous posts in University governance and on advisory committees. Currently he serves on the Curriculum Council, the Internship Committee, the Pre-MBA Advisory Committee (as chairman), the Room-at-the-Top Selection Committee, and the Faculty Advisory Committee.

Harrington chaired the 1980/81 Library Self Study Committee, was a member of the Dean Selection Committee in 1976/77, served as a Freshman Orientation adviser for a dozen years, was a member of the 1972 and 1982 Accreditation Self Study Committees, and held many other committee appointments.

Since 1972, he has been an active member of the United Way of McLean County, holding the presidency of its board between 1982-84.

He was educated at Illinois State University and at the University of Iowa, and also did post-doctoral work at Cambridge University, England.

Among Dr. Harrington's professional and honorary associations are membership in Omicron Delta Gamma (Order of Artus), Alpha Kappa Psi, Phi Gamma Nu, Phi Kappa Phi, and the American and Midwest Economics Associations.

In 1968 he published a case study on instructional closed-circuit television in the Journal of Educational Research.
