Flow

Tommy Bravos

Illinois Wesleyan University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.iwu.edu/music_compositions

Part of the Composition Commons, and the Music Performance Commons

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.iwu.edu/music_compositions/45

This Article is protected by copyright and/or related rights. It has been brought to you by Digital Commons @ IWU with permission from the rights-holder(s). You are free to use this material in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s) directly, unless additional rights are indicated by a Creative Commons license in the record and/or on the work itself. This material has been accepted for inclusion by The Ames Library at Illinois Wesleyan University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@iwu.edu.

©Copyright is owned by the author of this document.
Instrumentation

Violin
Trumpet in Bb
Main Vocals
Harmony Vocals
Piano

Performer Notes

-Time signature is suggested but assume fluidity. Unwritten ritardandos and tempo rubato are allowed when appropriate, most specifically at any 5/4 section when the main theme is present

-Solo Vocal line may be sung as written if the performer is male, and the part may be taken the octave up should it fit a female singer’s range more appropriately.

-Be sure to follow the notes at measures 51 and 54, as well as when those respective sections return. The repeated sections may be played up to 5 times at the performers wishes but must be repeated at least twice. For the four measures where vocal harmonies are present, the pitches sung do not have to match what is notated, but the rhythm must remain the same. This section may be repeated extensively up to 15 times.

-As it goes with most pieces of popular music, what is notated is not always what is heard. There is a fair degree of liberty in this piece, to stick with the theme of flow. As long as the chord structure and notated meters are followed, the piano player may vary the chords and rhythms, and the vocalist may change the solo line. However, these parts can’t stray too far from the original content, as the Violin and Trumpet parts should not be altered. If the piano and vocal parts were changed drastically, they would clash.

Duration

Approximately 3.45
Simile

Silence on the beach stirs Questions to be asked why do waves wash the sand?

Why should they change the past?

Never-ending

they ask the shore even though she has declined of ters be fore
The tide reaches land, to dance with the sand and resimile

turns each night to soak it a-gain
It seems

This flow

simile
Violin improvises, Repeat 2-5 times
* Improvisation on notes is allowed, must keep notated rhythm and teaches care but fire blinds what is not there.
Questions will not cease And I am thrown in hell. Push and pull me under even though I Oh this ocean is so vast, but I can't swim anymore hidden beneath a mask you vanish with the wind

The tide reaches land, to dance with the sand. and re-

--- mp

--- mp

--- mp

--- mp

--- mp
88

turns each night to soak it a-gain

91

It seems
This flow

simile

Will never Violin improvises, Repeat 2-5 times Repeat 5-15 times

and teaches care but fire blinds what is not there.

*Again, Improvisation of pitches s allowed and this time encouraged, but must use notated rhythm