Kathleen Montgomery

Associate Professor of Political Science

Recipient of The Kemp Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence — 2015

Kathleen Montgomery, associate professor of political science, is the 2015 recipient of the Kemp Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence. Nominated by her peers and selected by the University's Promotion and Tenure Committee, Dr. Montgomery is the 42nd winner of the University's top teaching award.

In announcing Dr. Montgomery's recognition, Provost and Dean of the Faculty Jonathan Green quoted a nominator who said her contributions "are not only in her area of expertise, she also effectively contributes to general education by regularly delivering some of the most exciting Gateway Colloquium on our campus."

As a faculty member, Dr. Montgomery has taught courses in comparative politics with an emphasis on post-communist Europe, advanced democracies, comparative method, and women in politics. She has conducted research with the help of Fulbright, IREX, and IWU Artistic and Scholarly Development grants. She is also a frequent reviewer for the academic journals Women, Politics, and Public Policy; British Journal of Politics; and Comparative Political Studies. Her publication Women's Access to Political Power in Post-Communist Europe (Oxford University Press), co-edited with Richard Matland, is widely cited in academic literature and used in graduate courses in Hungary. She has frequently co-authored research with IWU students, most recently with Eckley Summer Scholar Ryan Winter '14. Dr. Montgomery's current research focuses on populist radical right-wing parties in Europe.

A member of the Illinois Wesleyan faculty since 1996, Dr. Montgomery's service to the University includes chairing the Faculty Development Committee. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from Santa Clara University and a doctorate at Emory University. Dr. Montgomery twice has been named the Student Senate Professor of the Year.

Through the years the Teaching Excellence Award has undergone several name changes, but its purpose has always been to recognize and celebrate the vital role that teaching plays at Illinois Wesleyan. The award honors one faculty member who brings spirit, passion and scholarship to the art of teaching. The Kemp Family Foundation began funding the award in the 2009-2010 academic year. Today we honor Associate Professor Kathleen Montgomery.

*This program is dedicated to the Class of 2015
and to students who have earned scholastic and activity honors.*
