Honors Convocation

April 6, 2016
Westbrook Auditorium—Presser Hall
11:00 a.m.
Linda French, professor of physics, is the 2016 recipient of the Kemp Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence. Nominated by her peers and selected by the University's Promotion and Tenure Committee, Dr. French is the 43rd winner of the University's top teaching award.

A professional astronomer for over 30 years, Dr. French is a regular guest at prominent observatories, including the Cerro Tololo Interamerican Observatory. Students often accompany her on these observing trips, which support her work in the study of the shapes and surfaces of asteroids and comets. Her research has been funded by the National Science Foundation. She was also a recipient of a Cottrell College Science Award. Asteroid 3506 French is named for her, in honor of Dr. French's educational and research achievements.

Dr. French joined the faculty at Illinois Wesleyan in 2002 and has taught astronomy, astrophysics, and observational astronomy as well as other courses in physics. She worked with students to modernize the facilities of the Mark Evans Observatory. She has also served as chair of the physics department. Twice she has led the IWU London Program, most recently in fall 2014. During a sabbatical in 2010, Dr. French conducted on-site research on the life and work of 18th-century astronomer John Goodricke of York, England. She has published widely and presented lectures and papers on Goodricke.

A native of Hagerstown, Indiana, French earned a bachelor's degree in astronomy from Indiana University and a master's and Ph.D. from Cornell University. She also did post-doctoral work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Through the years the Teaching Excellence Award has undergone several name changes, but its purpose has always been to recognize and celebrate the vital role that teaching plays at Illinois Wesleyan. The award honors one faculty member who brings spirit, passion, and scholarship to the art of teaching. The Kemp Family Foundation began funding the award in the 2009-2010 academic year. Today we honor Professor Linda French.
This program is dedicated to the Class of 2016
and
to students who have earned scholastic and activity honors.

From hearts aflame, our love we pledge to thee,
