Carmela Ferradáns

Professor and Chair of Hispanic Studies

Recipient of The Kemp Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence — 2019

Dr. Carmela Ferradáns is the 2019 recipient of the Kemp Foundation Award for Teaching Excellence at Illinois Wesleyan University. Nominated by her peers and selected by the University's Promotion and Tenure Committee, Dr. Ferradáns is the 46th winner of the University's top teaching award.

Dr. Ferradáns teaches all levels of Spanish language, literature, and cultural history of Spain, as well as writing intensive courses for the Writing Program. In her role as inaugural chair of Illinois Wesleyan's Council for Excellence in Teaching and Learning (CETAL), she has ventured into the fields of multimodal pedagogies and digital humanities. She is especially interested in finding connections between visual and written forms of communication.

As a scholar, Dr. Ferradáns is recognized for her critical studies on the poetry of Ana Rossetti, particularly for her intertextual analysis of the Calvin Klein advertising campaign of the 1980s as it relates to poetry and the visual arts. She is the editor and translator of Incessant Beauty: A Bilingual Anthology (New York: 2LeafPress, 2014) which gives to an English-speaking audience a first glimpse into Rossetti's eclectic and voracious symbolic universe. Presented in chronological order, the poetry collection offers a wide range of Rossetti's poetry that spans more than 30 years. The poems vary from the playful, often cheeky, early writing for which Rossetti is well-known, to the more brooding meditations on transcendental human qualities and the celebration of the poetic word itself. The last poem in the anthology "A Map of Waiting" takes on a social turn in Rossetti's poetic discourse where she maps out displacement and belonging in the Saharawi refugee camps of North Algeria. This poem shifted Dr. Ferradáns scholarly interests to the fields of migration and border studies. She is currently conducting research on the migration crisis in the Mediterranean for a bilingual edition of Por la vía de Tarifa / By Way of Tarifa, a collection of 12 short stories by Spanish writer and human rights activist Nieves García Benito.

Dr. Ferradáns joined the Illinois Wesleyan faculty in 1992 and earned a Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Irvine in 1993. Dr. Ferradáns completed a Master's degree in Spanish at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in 1988 after receiving a Bachelor's degree in philosophy and educational sciences at the University of Santiago de Compostela in 1984.

Areas of Dr. Ferradáns' research interests include: Contemporary Spanish literature and cultural studies; The Spanish avant-garde; The legacy of the Spanish Civil War; Digital humanities; Translation theory; Multimodal curriculum development; Migration Studies.

Through the years, the Teaching Excellence Award has undergone several name changes, but its purpose has always been to recognize and celebrate the vital role that teaching plays at Illinois Wesleyan. The award honors one faculty member who brings spirit, passion and scholarship to the art of teaching. The Kemp Family Foundation began funding the award in the 2009-2010 academic year. Today, we honor Carmela Ferradáns.
