NATIONAL HYMN
George William Warren
(1828-1902)
arr. Peter Andrew Gilbert '98

From hearts aflame our love we pledge to thee,
Where'er we wander over land or sea;
Through time unending loyal we will be—
True to our Alma Mater Wesleyan.

When college days are fully past and gone,
While life endures from twilight dream till dawn,
Grandly thy soul shall with us linger on—
Star-crowned our Alma Mater Wesleyan!

— Professor W. E. Schultz
(1887-1964)

Dr. Gregory Poland '77

Director of the Mayo Clinic's Vaccine Research Group

Dr. Gregory Poland, a 1977 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan, is a national and international expert in the field of vaccinology, clinical research and a leading expert in the field of biodefense.

Dr. Poland is the Director of the Mayo Clinic's Vaccine Research Group, which uses state-of-the-art research technology to investigate issues surrounding vaccine response and novel vaccines important to public health. Dr. Poland is a Professor of Medicine and Infectious Diseases and Molecular Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics, the Associate Chair for Research for the Department of Medicine, and the Director of the Immunization Clinic and the Program in Translational Immunovirology and Biodefense at the Mayo Clinic. Dr. Poland also sits on a number of high-profile national committees, organizations, and workgroups and is often asked to advise government and military officials on issues of vaccine, vaccination policies, and infectious disease prevention. He is also president of the International Society for Vaccines and the American Editor for the journal Vaccine.

Highly visible as a national media commentator, he has conducted interviews with Tom Brokaw and Matt Lauer (NBC Nightly News and Today show), Peter Jennings and Dr. Tim Johnson (ABC Nightly News, Good Morning America, ABC Now), Jim Lehrer (PBS-The Jim Lehrer Report), and National Public Radio. He has been widely quoted in print media such as the Associated Press, United Press International, The Wall Street Journal, New York Times, Newsweek, and countless others. He is in continual demand by the national media as an articulate spokesman and a voice of reason whether discussing influenza, flu shots and shortages, biodefense, SARS, or bird flu.

Dr. Poland is the recipient of numerous awards and honors. In February 2004, the Mayo Clinic's Board of Trustees appointed him the Mary Lowell Leary Professor in Medicine. This represents the highest academic distinction for a faculty member. In May 2003, he was awarded the Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service for serving on the Armed Forces Epidemiological Board. In 1998, he received a joint award from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Health Care Financing Administration for his contribution to increasing adult immunization rates in the U.S. Also of major significance, in 1997, he was honored as the "Outstanding Clinical Investigator of the Year" by the Mayo Clinic.

Additionally, Dr. Poland participates on many national and academic review committees and actively peer-reviews journal articles for more than 26 different publications such as The Lancet, Annals of Internal Medicine and New England Journal of Medicine. A prolific writer, Dr. Poland has published more than 200 peer-reviewed scientific articles and chapters.

Dr Poland received his medical degree from the Southern Illinois University School of Medicine in Springfield, Ill., and completed his residency and advanced post-graduate work at the University of Minnesota/Abbott-Northwestern Hospital, Minneapolis, Minn.

Academic Colors and Regalia

Like judicial robes the garments worn on academic occasions such as today's Commencement derive from the ecclesiastical garb of medieval England. The scholar in the Middle Ages it must be remembered was a clerk and therefore required to wear the clerical gown and tonsure. Certainly at Oxford and Cambridge at least in the earliest times the robes were monastic in origin although the hood was adapted from a lay garment common to both sexes and all classes.

As early as the fourteenth Century scholars of certain colleges were required by statute to wear "a decent habit" befitting a clerk and no evidence appears that there was much differentiation among undergraduates bachelor's master's and doctoral robes. All were black commonly of lamb's wool; most were fur-lined for warmth or at least fur trimmed; and the only mark of difference was in the fuller cut and ankle length of the master's gown. The cope or closed cape was also black and followed the style of the everyday mantle of the clergy.

Hoods were worn by all and probably had no academical significance at the beginning. By 1330-40 doctors began to adopt scarlet for their hoods and by 1500 for their robes with black retained by the masters of arts and bachelors of divinity. An act of Henry VIII in 1533 ratified the wearing of robes of other colors. Hoods were lined with silk and miniver fur a custom surviving until the late seventeenth Century but over the years distinctions were created to identify the various ranks and faculties.

Caps evolved in similar manner. The round velvet cap is still worn today in the full dress of doctors (except doctors in theology); the familiar square or mortar-board was copied in the early sixteenth Century from the thirteenth Century cap of the University of Paris. A third style also derives from Paris: a squared cap made by sewing four pieces of cloth with seams producing ridged edges seen in modern times in the biretta of the clergy and the squared velvet cap of doctors of theology. The "who" and "how" of the wearing of caps produced numerous rulings restrictions and change.

The Reformation repressed the brilliant silks gold lace costly furs and extravagant cut of academic robes and the sober and more uniform styles are for the most part what we see today.

However the growth of higher education in the United States during the nineteenth Century when the great land grant colleges and universities were established under the Morrill Act created a confusion of conflicting styles and colors. The easy identification of one's academic status by means of cut fabric and color was no longer true.

In 1893 an intercollegiate commission presented a uniform code for caps, gowns and hoods to be worn in the United States. The mortarboard caps are the same for doctoral, master's and baccalaureate degrees, except that doctors' caps may be of velvet and may have a gold tassel. The bachelor's gown is marked by pointed sleeves, reaching to the knee, while the master's sleeve is squared at the ends, and longer. The doctoral robe is fullest, with rounded bell shaped sleeves marked by three velvet stripes.

The greatest symbolism of the academic costume is borne by the hood, which identifies the level of the degree, the faculty (or department of learning) in which it was earned, and the institution which awarded it. The size of the hood, its shape and the width of its velvet trim identify the level of the degree, with doctoral hoods naturally being the fullest, widest and longest. Faculty colors tell us the department.

Today's graduates will be wearing white for the College of Liberal Arts, pink for the School of Music, apricot for the School of Nursing, golden yellow for the sciences, and brown for the fine arts. Faculty members in the processional may be wearing light blue for education, copper for economics, drab for business and accountancy, orange for engineering, purple for law, lemon for library science, green for medicine, apricot for nursing, dark blue for philosophy, sage green for physical sciences, cream for social sciences and scarlet for theology, among the many available. The colors are mandatory on hoods, but may also be used on the tassels and/or the velvet on doctoral gowns.

The university or college is usually identified by the color of the hood lining. Two colors are frequently used, since there are approximately 2,000 degree-granting institutions in the United States. A few, such as Harvard, Yale, Princeton and the University of Chicago, use a single color. Illinois Wesleyan's green and white was adopted in 1888.

The Illinois Wesleyan University Mace, first carried at the 1969 inauguration of Dr. Robert S. Eckley as fifteenth president of the University, is also a striking symbol of the institution. Made of bronze for power and endurance and of walnut for organic strength, its cupola represents the bell tower of Old North Hall, Illinois Wesleyan's first building, which was erected in 1856 and demolished in 1967 to make way for Sheean Library. The bell suggests the Hedding Bell, a campus landmark since 1931, when it was installed on the IWU campus after peeling for generations at Hedding College, now defunct. The staff of the Mace is made from the walnut of Old North Hall, and the names of Illinois Wesleyan's presidents are engraved on its bronze base.

Prior to and during the Commencement ceremony, the Illinois Wesleyan Alumni Association will sponsor a hospitality tent serving complimentary beverages. The tent is located south of Shaw Hall on the east side of the Eckley Quadrangle. A first-aid station is located near the tent. In the Shirk Center these same services will be available in the lobby.

Refreshments may be purchased at Tommy's and Hattie's in the Hansen Student Center and the Coffee Shoppe in the Memorial Center.

Near the Eckley Quadrangle restrooms are located on the first floor of the following buildings: Shaw Hall, Center for Liberal Arts (wheelchair accessible), Memorial Center, and Holmes Hall. In the Shirk Center, the restrooms are located to the north of the lobby.

Following the ceremony, the Illinois Wesleyan Alumni Association invites you to a short reception in the tents on Eckley Quadrangle. If the ceremony is in the Shirk Center, the reception will be in the Activity Center.

Senior marshals for the Commencement ceremony are Professors Mona J. Gardner and Frank Boyd. Student marshals from the Class of 2006 are the Class officers, Jessica Dixon and Nick Holland.
