Thanks go out to, first and foremost, everyone who allowed us to read their work. Thank you also to those who generously gave direction and advice to the writers and staff, and to the authors, Mike Balsley, and Student Senate.

The Undergraduate Review is an annual periodical that publishes undergraduate academic thought and research by students at Illinois Wesleyan University. A diversity of subject matter is invited. Submissions are accepted each spring semester and chosen through blind review by the editors and editorial board. The UR is offered free of charge and funded through the IWU Student Senate. Printed by Bloomington Offset Process Inc.
