Oral History Interview with Richard Muirhead
On May 30, 2017
Conducted by Meg Miner, Illinois Wesleyan Archivist

00:00:39 - Richard Muirhead introducing himself
00:01:03 - Muirhead discussing why he chose to go to Wesleyan
00:02:40 - Muirhead talking about his mother's education
00:03:48 - Muirhead discussing his community
00:05:14 - Muirhead discussing the lifestyle change moving to Bloomington was 00:07:07 - Muirhead discussing the activities he did to ease the transition
00:08:35 - Muirhead talking about how in touch he is with IWU today
00:11:45 - Muirhead discussing African Americans on campus
00:15:15 - Muirhead on his Human Rights Statement that was issued
00:18:37 - Muirhead discussing the time when African American students started become a part of a fraternity.
00:23:48 - Muirhead discussing his sons going to college
00:25:33 - Muirhead talking about the connection between Human Rights on campus and in the community
00:30:14 - Muirhead discussing Dr. Whitehurst and their relationship 00:30:42 - Muirhead discussing Professor Dale and their relationship in regards to Human Rights
00:37:15 - Muirhead talking about the Baker Fieldhouse
00:41:22 - Muirhead discussing the Peace Corp and him teaching
00:46:09 - Muirhead discussing Study Abroad programs at Wesleyan
00:48:21 - Muirhead discussing the gender rights movements on campus
00:50:44 - Muirhead talking about his brother's fraternity experience
00:53:27 - Muirhead talking about Dr. King's speech on campus
00:55:21 - Muirhead discussing his education at Illinois Wesleyan