IWU to Host Chamber Music Camp and Festival

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – As part of its Summer Music Program, Illinois Wesleyan University will host a Chamber Music Camp and Festival for strings, wind, harp and piano June 18 - July 2 in Presser Hall (1210 Park St., Bloomington).

The camp is open to high school and junior high school students who wish to participate in intensive music training. The cost of tuition is $480 and room and board for overnight students is an additional $460. Local students have the option of buying a lunch-only meal plan for $115. Need-based scholarships are available.

The camp consists of intensive chamber music training that includes daily coaching, rehearsals, master classes, and performances by students and faculty. In addition, students will be able to choose elective classes which include: handbell choir, singing, international dance, tennis and swimming.

For information call (309)556-3547. Applications for enrollment are available on the Web at <http://www2.iwu.edu/music/k12/camp2.shtml>. The deadline for application is April 25, 2006.
