Illinois Wesleyan Honors 38 as Distinguished Business Seniors

March 16, 2005

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. - Thirty-eight Illinois Wesleyan University students will be recognized as distinguished seniors majoring within the Division of Business and Economics during the division's 16th Annual Distinguished Senior Program on April 12.

The annual honor recognizes the division's top students. The honorees include students with the division's highest GPAs, those who are advisory board members, senior leaders in student clubs, and research honor students.

Illinois Wesleyan University President Richard F. Wilson, Provost Janet McNew, Associate Provost Roger Schnaitter, Associate Dean of the Faculty Tom Griffiths, and Special Assistant to the President Mona Gardner will attend the breakfast and presentations hosted by division faculty.
