IWU Honors 34 as Distinguished Business Seniors

Editor's Note: Please check this list of Illinois Wesleyan University Distinguished Business Seniors for students from your area.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.--Thirty-four Illinois Wesleyan University students will be recognized as "Distinguished Seniors" majoring in business on April 13.

The students will be honored by faculty at the 10th annual Distinguished Senior Program, sponsored by IWU's Division of Business and Economics. Students will receive certificates marking their academic achievements at a breakfast ceremony.

The annual honor is designated for students who have been academic leaders and have contributed to the academic programs at IWU. It includes those with the Division's highest grade-point averages, advisory board members, senior leaders in our student clubs, and research honor students.

IWU President Minor Myers, jr., Provost Janet McNew, Associate Provost Roger Schnaitter, and Associate Dean of the Faculty Mona Gardner will attend the event, hosted by Division faculty.

All hometowns are in Illinois unless otherwise indicated.

IWU, founded in 1850, enrolls about 2,000 students in a College of Liberal Arts, and individual schools of Music, Theatre Arts, Art, and Nursing. Since 1994, these facilities have been added to the IWU campus: a $15 million athletics and recreation center, a $25 million science center, a $6.8 million residence hall, and a $5.1 million Center for Liberal Arts.
