BLOOMINGTON, Ill. -- Baccalaureate degrees were conferred on 545 members of the Class of 2000 at Illinois Wesleyan University on Sunday, May 7, during the 150th annual Commencement program.

IWU President Minor Myers, jr., also conferred an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree on award-winning filmmaker Kevin Smith, the film director and writer who delivered the Commencement address.

The commencement list also includes those seniors who completed their academic graduation requirements at the end of May Term 2000.

Twenty-one students graduated summa cum laude (S), signifying a grade-point average of 3.9 or better (on a 4.0 scale). Sixty-seven received magna cum laude honors (M) for a grade-point average of 3.7 or higher, while 80 more graduated cum laude (C) for a GPA of 3.5 or higher.

A total of 362 students received bachelor of arts (BA) degrees and 70 were presented bachelor of science (BS) degrees. Thirty received bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) degrees; 42 graduated with bachelor of fine arts (BFA) degrees; 22 received bachelor of music (BM) degrees; and 19 received bachelor of music education (BME) degrees.

About Illinois Wesleyan University

IWU, founded in 1850, enrolls about 2,070 students in a College of Liberal Arts, and individual schools of Music, Theatre Arts, Art, and Nursing. Since 1994, these facilities have been added to the IWU campus: a $15 million athletics and recreation center, a $25 million science center, a $6.8 million residence hall, a $5.1 million Center for Liberal Arts, and a $1.65 million baseball stadium. A $26 million library and a $6 million student center are under construction. Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine ranks Illinois Wesleyan University 12th among the nation's top 1,600 private colleges in providing a top-quality education at an affordable cost. Also sharing IWU's rank are Princeton and Dartmouth.
