Media Advisory

Event: Film: The Golf War

Sponsored by the Environmental Studies Speaker Series and Programs and part of the "Asia and Environment Series"

Date: March 29 (Thursday)

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Room C101, Center for Natural Science

Admission: Free, open to the public

Background: The Golf War is a film that depicts the conflict that arose when villagers resisted a golf course development planned by a local Philippine government. Violence erupted because the villagers believed the government's economic plan would disrupt their way of life as well as destroy ancestral lands.

There will be an introduction by IWU Associate Professor of Sociology and Director of International Studies, Teodora Amoloza.
