Date: Sept. 28, 2001 (Friday)

Time: 8 p.m.

Location: Main Lounge, Memorial Student Center, 104 E. University St., Bloomington

Background: Fans describe comedian Daniel Tosh as hilarious, original and absurd.

Originally from Germany, Tosh's family settled in Florida. In his last year of college at the University of Central Florida, Tosh was encouraged to hit the stand-up stage and after graduating with honors in finance and marketing, he hit the road and became a favorite at comedy clubs across the country.

Tosh is currently the host of the USA's WAMI Network produced show "10's," a weekly series of "man-on-the-beach" interviews and sketches shot in and around Miami Beach and at various nightclubs. The show airs in Florida, Dallas, Atlanta and Chicago. He also recently completed a pilot for the E! Network where he co-hosted with "Tool Time" girl, Home Improvement's Debbie Dunning. The show, called "Celebrity Scavengers" will air this summer. Tosh also just taped "Premium Blend" for Comedy Central hosted by comedian Tommy Davidson and The List for VH-1.
