Media Advisory

Event: IWU University Chapel Hour: The Rev. Fred Small, pastor of the First Church Unitarian will present "Been Out in the Storm So Long: Environmental Defense as a Moral Imperative."

Date: Oct. 17, 2001 (Wednesday)

Time: 11 a.m.

Location: Evelyn Chapel, 1301 N. Park St., Bloomington

Admission: Free and open to the public

Background: Small is co-chair of the Religious Witness for the Earth, a national interfaith environmental network dedicated to public witness on critical environmental issues, especially global climate change.

After graduating from Yale with a B.A. degree in American Studies, and the University of Michigan with a J.D. and M.S. in Natural Resources, Small worked as a staff attorney for the Conservation Law Foundation (CLF). Small left CLF to tour internationally as a folksinger and songwriter, releasing seven albums over two decades. He earned his master of divinity degree from Harvard University in 1999.
