Media Advisory

Event: Blue Moon Coffeehouse: SONiA

Date: Oct. 27 (Saturday)

Time: Doors open at 7:30 p.m. and performances, usually consisting of two sets, begin at 8:00 p.m.

Location: Main Lounge, Memorial Student Center, 104 E. University St., Bloomington

Admission: Free, open to the public

Background: Singer-songwriter SONiA Rutstein of disappear fear returns to IWU in support of her latest solo project, Live From the Down Home.

SONiA delivers her songs with both electric and acoustic guitars, and a "dylan-esque" harmonica. Critics describe her voice as intense, with a powerful angst and passion that provokes audiences to dance, to smile, and to cry.

Fans across the country have responded to SONiA's call to love out loud and confront the difficult issues of our times--from the political struggle against censorship to those for human rights, to the turmoil and triumph of the heart.

Boston-based Rounder Records has released five disappear fear CDs, as well as the critically acclaimed SONiA solo efforts, Almost Chocolate and Me, Too.
