Illinois Wesleyan University Selected for Honor Roll

May 13, 2011

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.— Illinois Wesleyan University has been named to the 2010 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS). CNCS is a federal agency that engages more than five million Americans in service to helping others throughout the United States.

Announced on Thursday, May 12, the award, which is recognized at the highest levels of the federal government, will be presented in June at the National Conference on Volunteering and Service in New Orleans. According to the organization, institutions of higher learning selected for this honor, "reflect the values of exemplary community service" and have achieved meaningful outcomes of civil engagements on their campuses and in their communities.
