WINTER'S FOLLY

Katherine Spencer and David Vayo*
School of Music, Illinois Wesleyan University

Winter's Folly is an indie-art composition written for voice with accompanying instruments. Reminiscent of Schubert Lieder and contemporary folk songs, the lyrics reflect the fear of an uncertain future but a determination to face who you are meant to be. The chord at the end of the piece conveys the hope for change and transformation. Winter's Folly will form part of a four-song cycle based on the seasons.
