Student Programming Crew Wins Honors

Nov. 14, 2013

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.— The programmers and crew of Illinois Wesleyan's Office of Student Activities have reason to celebrate: this November, they won the Programming Organization of the Year award for a small budget program at the National Association for Campus Activities Mid America Regional Conference.

The annual conference was held from November 7 to 10 in Peoria. This award, which recognizes the most outstanding programming board in the region, marks the second, consecutive first-place prize for the team. Criteria for the distinction included effective use of resources, creativity and campus support.

Seniors Terrence Hood and Brianna Sarikcioglu, juniors Elise April, Amy DeBoer, Bailee Dunlap, Colin Rathe, Maddie Savin, Sneha Subramanian and Ateh Tetteh, sophomore Delana Olaosebikan and first-years Laurel Jiang, Yemaya Jennings and Jennifer Sieben constitute the student programmers and crew.
