Greising Selected for Teaching Internship in Japan

June 1, 2016

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.— Selena Greising '16 (Aurora, Ill.) is one of only two people selected for a post-graduate teaching internship at Technos College in Tokyo.

In only its third year, the Technos program will allow Greising to assist the English language teacher and also teach lessons as the school year progresses.

Greising is the second Illinois Wesleyan student in as many years to be selected for the competitive program. Charlotte Silver '15 is finishing her 11-month appointment this summer.

A theatre arts major, Greising recently graduated magna cum laude. At Illinois Wesleyan she appeared as “Luce” in the lab theatre production of Float, and worked on the production team and crew for School of Theatre Arts main stage productions of Where in the World is Frank Sparrow?, A Class Act, and the Losing It dance concert. She is expected to begin her work at Technos College in September.
