Undercover X Carries Campus Tradition

March 29, 2007

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. - The tenth semester of the Underground music competition series will be held Friday, April 13 at 8 p.m. in the Hansen Student Center (300 Beecher St., Bloomington).

Sponsored by the Office of Student Activities, the event is free and open to the public.

Undercover is a unique live music competition. All competitors are Illinois Wesleyan students armed and ready with two cover songs and a desire to entertain. Past performances have included acoustic ballads, Motown's greatest, country hits and rock anthems.

A panel of guest judges, along with the help of the audience, decides which students will walk away with bragging rights as the winners of the competition.
