Campus to Open Late on Thursday

Jan. 30, 2019

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — Due to continued cold temperatures and wind chills, Illinois Wesleyan University classes on Thursday, Jan. 31, will begin at 9:25 a.m. to allow more time for caution during these atypical weather conditions.

Non-essential staff should report at 9 a.m. when buildings will reopen.

Dining services will remain on the standard schedule.

Members of the Illinois Wesleyan community are encouraged to remain cautious and use their best judgement when venturing outdoors.
