Multicultural Organizations Host Homecoming Tailgate

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.— Showcase your Titan pride while enjoying food and games before the football game at the “2012 Homecoming Multigate” on Saturday, Oct. 13 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Multicultural House (1405 Park St., Bloomington).

The event is hosted by the African Student Association, Asian Pacific Student Association, Black Student Union, Hillel, PRIDE Alliance, Spanish and Latino Student Association, Southeast Asian Student Association, Sisters Actively Visualizing Vitality through Intellect (SAVVI) and the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs.

The tailgate is open to the public and all students, alumni, faculty and family members are encouraged to attend. The meal is free for current Illinois Wesleyan University students with a meal plan and student ID card. The cost for food is $7.50 for those without a meal plan.

The meal includes a choice of hamburger or hot dog (with condiments), a side, beverage and dessert. Vegetarian options are also available. This is a non-alcoholic event.

Be sure to wear your green and white Titan gear and bring a lawn chair or blanket and networking materials such as business cards, pens, and paper.

If you are planning on attending please RSVP by Friday, Oct. 5 at noon by email to mcaffairs@iwu.edu or by phone at (309) 556-3412. Please indicate if you would like a vegetarian meal.

For additional information contact Lauren Rock, president of SAVVI, via email at lrock@iwu.edu.
