IWU Music Students to Perform Student Recitals

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. -- Students of the Illinois Wesleyan School of Music will perform recitals throughout the spring 2007 semester in Westbrook Auditorium of Presser Hall (1210 Park St., Bloomington) and Evelyn Chapel (1301 Park St., Bloomington). The recitals are free and open to the public.

Music performance majors are required to hold recitals during their junior and senior years. Most junior recitals are performed with a fellow student, while senior recitals are solo. Recitals this year include vocal and instrumental performances, as well as two student composition recitals and one student chamber ensemble performance.

Following is the performance schedule:
