Private String Lessons Offered At IWU

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Registration is currently underway for private instruction in string instruments offered in the summer and fall of 2003 by the String Preparatory Department at Illinois Wesleyan University. Lessons in violin, viola, cello and double bass are offered at all levels, and chamber and studio classes are available to intermediate and advanced students.

Instructors include Lisa Nelson, supervisor of the IWU preparatory string department, and Charlotte Williams, the assistant principal cellist of the Illinois Symphony. Lessons and recitals will be held at Presser Hall on IWU's campus at 1210 Park Street in Bloomington.

For information about registration or questions, please call Lisa Nelson at (309) 556-3547.
