Illinois Wesleyan University Arlington Heights Resident Published in Medical Journal

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Mark Rubin of Arlington Heights Ill., co-authored an article that was published in the April 30, 2004, edition of Contemporary Neurosurgery. Rubin, a senior biology major at Illinois Wesleyan, is the sole undergraduate student published in the medical journal that features the research of physicians and medical students. He completed the article, “Percutaneous Vertebroplasty,” during his summer work with Dr. Bernard Bendock at Northwestern University Medical School and Hospital in Chicago.

Rubin is a 2001 graduate of Larkin High School in Elgin, Ill.
