Business and Economics Distinguished Seniors Named at Illinois Wesleyan

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.--The business and economics departments at Illinois Wesleyan University named Chad Rock, a business administration major, one of 46 distinguished seniors at its 12th Annual Distinguished Senior breakfast program on April 17th.

The award honors business and economic majors who have been academic leaders and contributors to the academic program at IWU, including those with the department's highest GPAs, advisory board members, senior leaders in student clubs and research honor students.

In addition to the department faculty, IWU President Minor Myers, jr.; IWU Provost Janet McNew; IWU Associate Provost Roger Schnaitter and IWU Associate Dean of Faculty Mona Gardner attended the event.

Rock, a graduate of Paxton Buckley Loda High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rock, 207 W. Maple, Roberts, Ill., 60962.
