Illinois Wesleyan University Honors Students at Annual Honors Day Convocation

BLOOMINGTON, ILL. — Jamin L. Bercaw, a senior political science and history double major at Illinois Wesleyan University from Paris, Ill., was recognized as one of 29 Outstanding Seniors as part of Illinois Wesleyan University's annual Honors Day Convocation held Wednesday, April 17.

Bercaw graduated from Paris High School in Paris, Ill.

Seniors who have excelled both inside and outside the classroom are recognized as IWU's Outstanding Seniors. The winners have outstanding academic records, have engaged in research honors, or have been involved in departmental activities. An outstanding senior also has been actively involved in volunteer, social, service or other organizations. Students are nominated by their departments and selected by the Outstanding Senior Selection Committee. Recipients are awarded certificates at Honors Convocation.

Illinois Wesleyan, a national liberal arts college founded in 1850, enrolls 2,000 students in the College of Liberal Arts and individual schools of Art, Music, Nursing, and Theatre Arts.
