Media Advisory

- Event: The Office of Student Activities presents: Recycled Percussion, a southern New Hampshire trash orchestra
- Date: Feb. 6 (Friday)
- Time: 8 p.m.
- Location: The Hansen Student Center, 300 Beecher St., Bloomington
- Admission: Free and open to the public
- Background: Recycled tools, recycled barrels, recycled basement garbage, building site leftovers, recycled inspirations, recycled grooves and rhythms of the planet earth. This is the recipe for Recycled Percussion, a group that makes music from trash.
- Using everything from pots and pans to step ladders, fifty-gallon drums, the occasional chainsaw and even the kitchen sink, the group creates a menagerie of tasty grooves combining Latin, African, hip-hop and rock beats.
- Recycled Percussion has played for audiences in over 40 states and with such performers as LL Cool J, Godsmack, Staind, Stroke 9, They Might Be Giants and Reveille. In 2003 the group played over 200 shows at colleges and universities nationwide.
- Contact: For additional information about Recycled Percussion's performance, contact Assistant Dean of Students Kevin Clark at (309) 556-3850 or visit the group's Web site at www.recycledpercussion.com
