Illinois Wesleyan University Students Perform in Student Chamber Ensembles

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – An upcoming concert will showcase the accomplishments of students who are enrolled in chamber music courses at Illinois Wesleyan University for the spring 2004 semester.

The concert will be at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 4, in Evelyn Chapel, 1301 N. Park St., Bloomington. Several ensembles – duets, trios, quartets, and quintets – will perform a range of songs from composers such as Joseph Haydn and Franz Schubert.

Illinois Wesleyan University students performing in the program include:

- Anna Carlson of Longmont, Colo., a graduate of Longmont High School, a freshman majoring in music and business administration;
- Andrew Hesse of Bloomington, Ill., a graduate of University High School, a sophomore majoring in orchestral instruments;
- Amanda Andrews of Geneva, Ill., a graduate of Geneva Community High School, a freshman majoring in music;
- Mark Portolese of Green Oaks, Ill., a graduate of Libertyville High School, a senior majoring in computer science and orchestral instruments;
- Stephanie Jaeckel of Mundelein, Ill., a junior majoring in piano performance;
- Bret Negro of New Berlin, Ill., a graduate of Sacred Heart-Griffin High School, a sophomore majoring in orchestral instruments;
- Emily Meyer of Oak Park, Ill., a graduate of Oak Park & River Forest High School, a senior majoring in music education;
- Benjamin Weber of Oak Park, Ill., a graduate of Oak Park & River Forest High School, a senior majoring in music education;
- Kathleen Magill of Oakbrook, Ill., a graduate of Community High School District 99 North High School, a freshman majoring in biology and orchestral instruments;
- Alexandra Bobbit of Wheaton, Ill., a graduate of Wheaton-Warrenville South High School, a freshman majoring in international business and music;
- Johanna Wiesbrock of Wheaton, Ill., a graduate of Glenbard South High School, a senior majoring in music;
- Donovan Davis of Kansas City, Mo., a graduate of Hickman Mills High School, a freshman majoring in music education; and
