FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BLOOMINGTON, ILL.--Ellen Hurwitz, Provost and Dean of the Faculty at Illinois Wesleyan University, is one of 95 participants from around the world chosen to attend Harvard University's prestigious summer Institute for Educational Management July 8-Aug. 4.

The Institute is a comprehensive, intensive four-week program for senior executives of private and public colleges and universities, which provides growth, renewal and the development of insights into leadership and management in higher education.

Instructors for the Institute are professors of the Harvard Business School, Harvard Graduate School of Education, and other leading higher education experts from around the nation. The curriculum focuses on the major challenges faced by senior officers: monitoring the environment, setting directions, managing implementation, and developing resources.
