IWU Names Distinguished Seniors in Business, Economics

Editor's Note: The student(s) whose name(s) are highlighted are from your area.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.--Forty-three Illinois Wesleyan University students will be honored as Distinguished Seniors in Business and Economics at an April 26 ceremony.

The annual honor, awarded by the university's Division of Business and Economics, is designated for students who are academic leaders. Distinguished Seniors are research honors students and have earned the Division's highest grade-point averages, serve as advisory board members, and are leaders in various student clubs.

IWU President Minor Myers, jr., Provost Janet McNew, and Associate Provost Roger Schnaitter will attend the sixth annual breakfast presentation.

The students are:
