Dr. James E. Whitehurst, professor of religion at Illinois Wesleyan University, will compare Chinese and Zoroastrian funeral customs in a paper he will present to the meeting of the American Academy of Religion in Rockford Apr. 2. "Death Ceremonies: Insights into Life" is the title of his paper.

Whitehurst has been a student of China, both the Peoples Republic of China (Communist mainland) and the Republic of China (National China or Taiwan) for many years and visited both during a sabbatical in 1980.
