Dr. William L. White, chaplain of Illinois Wesleyan University, is the author of an article that will appear in the June issue of "The Circuit Rider," a monthly publication that goes to 35,000 pastors of the United Methodist Church.

The article urges the Church to undertake a more effective ministry toward the divorced community in American. It tells of White's experiences in founding a crisis support group in Bloomington-Normal in 1980. The local group has involved about 300 persons.
