BLOOMINGTON, ILL.--The board of directors of the Illinois Humanities Council will meet Friday afternoon and Saturday morning (Oct. 11-12) at Illinois Wesleyan University to review proposals for grants.

Twenty-eight board members of the council have made reservations for the meeting, which begins with a luncheon in Memorial Student Center. This will be the last of the group's three meetings this year.

Dr. Robert Bray, professor of English at Illinois Wesleyan, is a member of the Council's program evaluation committee.

Attending the luncheon will be IWU president Dr. Robert S. Eckley, Dr. Sue Ann Huseman, director of the humanities division at IWU, and Dr. Barbara Bowman, head of the university's English department.

Dr. Robert Klaus, Chicago, executive director of the Council, and Dr. Edward Rosenheim, Chicago, chairman of the board of directors, will be in charge of the meeting.
